Note-6: HRA Exemption Details

Details requirements for claiming income exemption under Section 10(13A) from House Rent Allowance (HRA) of the Income Tax Act 1961. House rent receipts are to be furnished, and such receipts may be furnished by the employee in Feb 2026.

receipts may be furnished by the employee in Feb 2026.

Details that should be available on House Rent Receipts:

- Name of the Employee
- Name of the Landlord & Address of rented property
- Amount paid to landlord with mode of payment
- If paid by cash, a revenue stamp must be pasted on it
- Related month & date of payment
- Copy of PAN Card of Landlord if annual rent is in excess of Rs 1,00,000/-

Important:

There is a common perception among employees that whatever rent an employee is paying for his/her house is exempt from tax or whatever HRA Component he/she is getting as a part of Salary is exempt. However, this is incorrect. Exemption of HRA will be available up to the minimum of the following three options:

1. Actual house rent allowance received from your employer
2. Actual house rent paid by you minus 10% of your basic salary
3. 50% of your basic salary if you live in a metro (Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai & Kolkata) or 40% of your basic salary if you live in other cities
